We know you are in our community doing wonderful things. Have you considered joining a women's professional organization that will connect you to other women who may need your services or products? We invite you to explore Network ... an organization for women.

Network is about networking. It is about women supporting and encouraging other women in business. By meeting other women and especially working on committees, you will make valuable personal and professional contacts.

You want women to use your services and products. Network is an excellent way to make personal contacts. The personal relationship may lead to potential clients trying your service or product. It may lead to career moves. And it will definitely add good things to your life.

Your membership in Network is the way to promote your business to other Network members.

Network is an organization by and for women. Our meetings address issues of interest to women. We publish a directory to help keep members' phone numbers at your fingertips. We nurture our own spirits with social and recreational outings. We are a founding member organization of the Women's Educational Coalition. As a part of that group, we are actively involved in funding and supporting educational opportunities for women.
